THE RAYMONDS MAKE ANSWER

They Claim the Bill of Sale Was Regular---Windup of the Williams Estate.

J. H. Raymond and Phoebe K. Raymond have filed an answer to the complaint of Jim Ah Hoy against them and their trustee, Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd. Among many admissions and denials they declare as follows:

Deny that complainant was requested to execute a power of attorney to J. H. Raymond under the circumstances alleged or at all.

Admit that on Nov. 23, 1905, complainant executed the bill of sale. Deny that he did not know, when he signed the instrument, that it was a bill of sale of the property therein enumerated. Allege the truth to be that J. H. Raymond read the bill of sale to complainant, explained it to him and discussed its terms with him before it was signed by him.

Deny that the consideration of $310 was inserted falsely, fraudulently or without the knowledge or consent of complainant. Allege the truth to be that the sum named was the valuation placed on the property mentioned in the bill of sale by the complainant himself, upon the understanding that he should receive credit for said sum on account of indebtedness to these respondents or their trustee at the time the bill of sale was executed.

Deny that when the bill of sale was executed the complainant did not owe them or their trustee any money. Allege he was indebted to them in the sum of about $1900.

Admit that they continued to do business with the complainant until March 6, 1906, and that the property mentioned in the bill of sale formed a part of the butcher and meat business of the complainant.

Deny that J. H. Raymond on March 6, 1906, or at any time fraudulently, unlawfully or against the right of the complainant entered upon the premises where the complainant had been conducting the said meat business and illegally expelled him therefrom.

Allege that the complainant having failed to observe the terms of the agreement of August 1, 1905, they terminated the agreement and J. H. Raymond as lessee of the premises took possession thereof, and admit that since the date mentioned they have assumed absolute control of the business and premises.

Admit that in a certain action at law J. H. Raymond introduced the bill of sale in evidence and claimed title thereunder, but deny that the bill of sale was or is in any respect false or fraudulent and that it has been or can be used in fraud of the complainant.

Admit that the complainant is a citizen of China, but on information and belief deny that he is unable to read or write the English language.

A. G. M. Robertson is solicitor for the respondents.

LONG DRAWN PROBATE.

John Marcellino, master, has filed a supplemental report on the final accounts of W. R. Castle, executor of the estate of Joshua K. Williams. A large number of vouchers are checked up and, with reference to some missing from accounts before June 30, 1906, the master thinks "more vouchers must have been filed with the trustee's annual accounts." He finds that the vouchers from July 1, 1906, to Dec. 31, 1906, are complete. The trust extends back more than 27 years.

Judge Robinson ordered that the reports of the master be approved, that the executor with all convenient speed file an amended final account and, upon that being done and certain other minor matters attended to, that the whole of the estate be distributed by William R. Castle, trustee, under the will of Joshua K. Williams, and thereupon he be discharged as executor.

TERRITORY CLAIMS POND.

Fred W. Milverton, Deputy Attorney General, has filed an answer for the Territory of Hawaii to the petition of Fred Windenberg for a registered title to land at Ewa. It sets up a claim to a certain fish pond or fishing ground, as extending beyond the original title lines of the property now owned by petitioner and into the waters of Pearl harbor, and prays that the title be not confirmed as to such portion of the premises.

FORECLOSURE JUDGMENT.

In the suit of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., v. J. M. Monsarrat and others, Judge Robinson ordered that complainant recover judgment for the foreclosure of its mortgage as a first and prior lien on the premises described in the bill, and that the several defendants holding mortgages on the premises be decreed to be entitled to a foreclosure of their respective mortgages in the order of dates of recording. It was further ordered that M. T. Simonton be appointed commissioner to sell the premises under a bond of $3000, the date and notice to be given to be determined by the decree.

COURT ITEMS.

A. B. Johanson has given notice of mechanic's lien for $138.28 on premises at Beretania and Ala street against S. Nishi and K. Nagata.

Judge Robinson approved the report of M. T. Simonton, master, on the S. C. Allen estate accounts, together with the accounts as recommended.

Judge Dole yesterday sentenced Imamura, for a violation of the Edmunds Act, to three months' imprisonment. Pleas in many cases were postponed.

INCAUTIOUS FRUIT EATING.

Bowel complaint is always more or less prevalent during the fruit season and as an attack is liable to come on without warning, it is best to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the home. This medicine is well known for its prompt cures and many times serious illness is avoided by having it at hand when needed. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

FULLERTON LOSES CASE ON APPEAL

Plaintiff's exceptions to the Circuit Court's judgment for defendant in the suit of James E. Fullerton v. James R. Pearce, defendant, and Rapid Transit Co., garnishee, are overruled in a unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court written by Justice Wilder. H. G. Middleditch and E. W. Sutton for plaintiff, L. M. Straus for defendant. The law is thus stated:

"In assumption on a promissory note where defendant pleaded the general issue and gave notice of intention to rely also on fraud and failure of consideration, an exception to the denying of a motion to strike out the plea of fraud is frivolous.

"A judgment of a Circuit Court jury waived cannot be reversed if there is sufficient evidence to support it."
